JOIN US FOR A “SWEET” VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY!
Corporations – Schools – Churches – Family and Friends

When: Sunday, November 3, 2019    Noon – 4:00 p.m.

Volunteers are very important to this event – we’d like to involve EVERYONE! This is an excellent community service project for all ages. Volunteers, in small groups, go door-to-door in neighborhoods throughout Omaha to sell honey.

Corporations: Sell honey on site in lunchrooms or lobbies - or a friendly intra-office competition!

Schools: Opportunity for Student Volunteer hours – through door-to-door sales; at local places of business; or at school sponsored activities (sports, musicals, plays) provided by student clubs, organizations and/or civics classes.

Churches and Synagogues: Youth and service groups sell either door to door or after Worship services. A great way to get community service hours.

Family and Friends: Canvas your own neighborhood; reach out and share the sweetness across the city with your family and friends.

Participation is simple to arrange for group leaders. You provide the volunteers, and we handle the details.

Beyond Barriers and Cultivating the Spirit to Work

On August 16, Ollie Webb Center, Inc. (OWCI) had the honor and pleasure of welcoming acclaimed author and trainer, Denise Bissonette to share her expertise in Supported Employment with a group of parents and professionals. Drawing from over two decades of experience, Denise used her personable and witty approach and was able to bridge gaps and connect each person through a common goal; successful job development for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities and the families and professionals that support them on their journey.

Denise shared personal struggles and success stories that renewed hope and revitalized hearts in addition to addressing specific scenarios provided by group participants. She focused on the critical nature the human spirit plays and shared the four pillars of hope, courage, belief, and action as facilitators of change. She simplified the practice of job development as the process of coaching rather than counseling. Attendees shared that the presentation was, “life-changing”, “quite powerful and real” and “a reminder of the infinite possibilities and opportunities that exist and to be open to the options”.

We want to extend our appreciation to Nebraska VR for the opportunity to offer this PRISM session in partnership with OWCI’s Pre-Employment Transition Summer Program.
Supported employment is a community-based work option for adults with developmental disabilities. Supported employment is based on the premise that work should be accessible to everyone, regardless of disability. By providing the necessary support, people with disabilities increase their opportunity for community integration, independence and productivity. Services in this area include: Job Development and Job Coaching.

Summer Success - Pre-Employment Transition Summer Program 2019

For the third consecutive year, the Ollie Webb Center was awarded a grant from Nebraska VR to provide a Pre-Employment Transition Program to transition-age youth. This year, OWCI served 17 program participants for twenty-two weeks ranging in age from 15-21 who were interested in increasing employability through a wide array of career exploration and job-readiness experiences.

Full-time instructors provided participants with classroom learning opportunities focused on employability skills such as appearance, effort, professional communication, and interviewing using the James Stanfield Transitions Curriculum. Curriculum based learning was coupled with hands-on community activities allowing participants to apply what they learned in the community and to observe those skills in action. Participants were presented with increased volunteer activities this year at The Big Garden and Scatter Joy Acres promoting hands-on experiences in two highly sought after career fields. Tours were provided by TJ Maxx, Creighton University, Metropolitan Community College, Bellevue Police Department, Onyx Street Boutique, NRG Media, and La Petite. Speakers supported additional learning opportunities in the field of small business and athletic training from Coach Moe’s Athletics, fundraising, health services, and communications.

Intertwined with classroom learning and community activities, participants engaged in several other events, including Dress for Success; an interactive day putting to use classroom knowledge gained about appropriate interview and professional attire. Participants put this activity into practice by participating in mock interviews with professionals from a local companies. Simulated interviews with support from a job coach occurred where students received feedback directly from the interviewer in real-time and set personal goals for improvement. The summer program culminated with participants presenting an electronic personal vision board to a group of peers, family members, and community members that reflected each student’s unique personalities, goals, and achievements using Microsoft PowerPoint and Google Docs.

OWCI was excited to develop new employer and local partnerships while increasing the pre-employment knowledge and skills of program participants. Thanks again to Nebraska VR for providing the opportunity to help us promote greater visibility and understanding of individuals with disabilities and the positive contributions that they can make within their communities through competitive integrated employment. We look forward to future opportunities to provide transition-age youth with employment services.
Next Chapter Book Club

Book Clubs meets once a week for an hour as a small group at a local coffee shop to read and discuss a book. All reading levels can participate! Members enjoy social connections and the delight of expanding their literacy.

NEXT CHAPTER BOOK CLUB UPDATE

Below are some highlights from a recent NCBC report compiled from our Volunteer Facilitators:

Socialization among members:

“Each member looks out for each other. They communicate if they are going to be gone and follow up with issues that may be concerning. They share their passions, hopes and are truly themselves when we are together!”

“This group is very close and are always concerned when someone is missing and they don’t know where they are or if they are ill.”

Joining a book club (and reading aloud) can be intimidating, but here is what some of our Facilitators had to share to help encourage individuals:

“We see good teamwork supports and encouragement among the team.”

“One member who reads aloud quite well used to pass every week (decline to take a turn reading) but during the past year she has read every week.”

How is the reception from staff and other customers at our meeting places?

“The positivity from staff and customers is humbling! The customers are smiling and responsive to us and have given us smiles and generous support. There is nothing but good vibes from all!”

“We have been very well received by our host site staff and management. Very helpful and very positive.”

Why be a Facilitator?

“Members are more excited to see me than my own family members!”

“I have a rather stressful daytime job and book club is my once a week escape to see people whom I consider to be my friends. Our book club is full of enthusiastic readers who truly love this club. They love to have a good laugh and often will laugh at the smallest things in the reading. I love seeing the improvement they make in their literacy and just the friendships that have developed.”

“I am almost 63 years old and it is the most rewarding volunteer work I have ever done in my life.”

Sibshops is an award-winning nationally-affiliated program for youth ages six to thirteen years and is uniquely designed to provide high-energy activities for brothers and sisters of children with developmental disabilities. Sibshops is a place where siblings may obtain peer support and education within a recreational context while having fun, and allows sibs to connect with each other about similar experiences.

All ages (6-13) will meet from 6:30-8:30 p.m. (includes snack).
Participants split in age groups (6-8 and 9-13)

9 sessions $90 • 5 sessions $50
1 session $12.50
Non-Members cost: 9 sessions $125
5 sessions $60 • 1 session $15

The first session will be held on September 24.

What are Sibshops? For the adults who plan them and the agencies that sponsor them, Sibshops are best described as opportunities for brothers and sisters of children with special health and developmental needs to obtain peer support and education within a recreational context.

Sibshops seek to provide siblings with opportunities for peer support. As Sibshops are designed (primarily) for school-aged children, peer support is provided within a lively, recreational context that emphasizes a kids’-eye-view.

Sibshops is offered at the same time and location as an adult series presented by Down Syndrome Alliance of the Midlands. Parents are encouraged to register for this series and to register their children for Sibshops. To register for the adult series, please go to their website: https://www.dsamidlands.org/events/.

This month’s workshop description is DEVELOPING AND IMPLEMENTING BEHAVIOR PLANS: LIKE A BOSS.

Please also let us know if you have a child who has “aged out” of Sibshops (14 or older). They may be eligible to participate as supportive mentors/volunteers during the program. For RSVP’s and more information, please email jstocking@olliewebbinc.org or call 402.342.4418 ext. 10.

National Disability Voter Registration Resources

Special thanks to PTI Outreach Coordinator, Graciela Sharif, on behalf of Disability Rights Nebraska (DRN) for providing an important workshop for participants of Ollie Webb Center, Inc.’s Continuing Education program. The workshop was held in honor of National Disability Voter Registration Week which is held in mid-July.

DRN advocates on behalf of Nebraskans with disabilities to make sure civil and human rights are being upheld. Through self-advocacy workshops, the organization seeks to educate and empower individuals to be in control of their own lives; one of these ways is by exercising one’s right to vote. During the presentation, participants discussed the importance of voting and the direct impact it can have on an individual’s daily life, including the right to research and voice opinions on laws and legislation that impact all citizens with disabilities. The group discussed how various marginalized groups have had to fight to have their voting rights upheld and their voices heard.

Participants learned about voter eligibility, how to register to vote, choosing a political party, and how to physically go to a polling station to vote (or get an early voting ballot). The group practiced voting using a sample ballot. Also discussed was the importance of being an educated voter as well as laws that have been passed to ensure that voting is accessible to all citizens, regardless of their disability. Currently, Polling Places are required to have at least one accessible voting booth in addition to accessible parking and entrances. A federal law, Help America Vote Act (HAVA) was enacted in 2002 to assure that voters with disabilities had the same access as those without disabilities. Participants were then able to discuss and share their own personal voting experiences.
